Terms of Use

Tensor Engineering (hereinafter referred to as “we,” “us,” etc.) strives to provide the end-user (hereinafter referred to as “you”) with an enjoyable and enriching internet experience. We have, at our option and expense, opted to provide a set of services whereby you may ascertain the status of your project and generate input on the aforementioned project.

You acknowledge that the methods used to generate files you may view on our website(s) are and by every right ought to be trade secrets, the improper release of which could prove extremely damaging to Tensor Engineering. Therefore, by logging in<sup>1</sup> to our website(s) you agree to abide by the terms of this and any other prior agreements such that proper nondisclosure may be maintained.

You also acknowledge that this website makes every effort to guard your personal data, but that it is solely your responsibility to maintain the privacy of your login credentials. You agree to indemnify and hold harmless Tensor Engineering from any incidental or consequential damages that may occur to you as a result of using our website(s), even if Tensor Engineering has been informed of or was otherwise previously aware of the possibility.

You further agree that all content contained on our website(s), including but not limited to text, images, PDF documents, trade secrets, forms, white papers, schematics, diagrams, blueprints, and layouts are solely the property of Tensor Engineering and may not be redistributed without express prior authorization from Tensor Engineering. This is extended to include hotlinking<sup>2</sup> for all Tensor Engineering web property other than the index page.

Tensor Engineering offers use of its website to you on an “as-is” basis and makes no warranties as to its fitness for a particular purpose, express or implied.

Some parts of the Tensor Engineering website(s) may collect personally identifiable data from you or other members of your organization. This data is protected by and bound to our Privacy Policy, available for viewing alongside this document at the bottom of every Tensor Engineering page. By using our website, you agree that you have read and understood this privacy policy and agree that we may use the data we collect from you as per the terms of that policy.
